

Statement of participation

RAVINDER Singh

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Talk the talk

This 12-hour course introduced the mechanics of effective, persuasive oral presentations.

Issue date: 24 April 2026

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:
<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/talk-the-talk/content-section-overview>

COURSE CODE: OUFL_07

Talk the talk

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/education-development/talk-the-talk/content-section-overview>

Course summary

This free course introduces the mechanics of effective, persuasive oral presentations, by giving you the opportunity to analyse examples and then create your own. Using resources such as TED Talk videos, you will see how experts deliver professional talks and famous speeches, observe what works, and identify how language connects ideas and keeps a listener engaged.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- understand the key elements of a good presentation
- experiment with ways to start and end a presentation that make an impact
- link ideas in the main part of a presentation that capture the audience's attention
- consider issues such as body language, voice projection and intercultural differences in approaches to oral presentations
- create and use a checklist for effective presentations.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Week 1

Getting started

Quiz (score 75%)

Week 2

Quiz (score 87%)

Week 3

Reaching your audience

Quiz (score 92%)

Week 4

Finishing your talk

Quiz (score 78%)